- Poems should be no longer than 40 lines (not including title and any blank lines) single spaced and printed on A4.
- We would appreciate it if you would attach a brief biography of yourself: age, occupation, family, writing career to date, favourite poets. This is not essential, and entries submitted without a biography will not be disadvantaged.
- If your poem is chosen, we will contact you and may ask you to send a good quality photo of yourself.
- By entering, authors will be deemed to have agreed for their work to appear in Writers' Forum and future Writers' Forum anthologies. Copyright remains with the author.
- The competition is open worldwide, but entries must be in English.

If you do not receive notification within three months of submission, please assume that you are not a winner on this occasion and are free to submit your poem/s elsewhere.
